

Author Teresa A. White shares a valuable guide for evangelical Christians in "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Dr. Teresa A. White brings a collection of stories from the Bible that aim to help evangelical Christians strengthen their faith and trust in God. The book includes beautiful photos and takes on a trajectory from design to life in the garden of Eden to the crucifixion account.

Dr. Teresa A. White, a renowned author, brings an inspiring book for Christian believers looking to boost their spirituality in "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

In the book, Dr. White tackles faith and obedience, among other topics, and offers biblical texts for individuals to follow accounts of several that have been tested.

"The Greatest Story Ever Told" provides an impressive analysis of a biblical text and contains biblical passages from the Old and New Testaments, drawing inspiration from several places within the Bible.

Dr. White opens "The Greatest Story Ever Told" with passages from the book of Genesis, which is the first book in the Bible, and cites Christianity's perspective of the purpose and plan of creation.

In the book, Dr. White writes: "Reading this story will cause you to search the Scriptures more deeply and more prayerfully daily. It will cause you to do a soul search on yourself. It's food for your hungry souls and gives directions for your life."

In a review, Falon Charles-Jabri described Dr. White's book as well-organized, scholarly written, and richly illustrated.

"White provides a wealth of information to substantiate her beliefs. It is a diverse introduction to the Bible and biblical thought, and her synopses may prove to be a valuable place for Christian believers to start understanding it. The Greatest Story Ever Told is a concise and insightful interpretive work that uses a mixture of science and faith to explain biblical lessons, all following the author's evangelical beliefs," wrote Falon.

In a book with various thrusts, Falon said Dr. White's simple explanations of the books of the Bible "provide deeper context, resulting in a valuable guide for evangelical Christians."

Grady Harp, another reader, wrote: "The Bible is 'explained' or rather shared in a conversational way that explores and illuminates the big question many people have about the validity of the Bible. Easy to read and offered some fine artworks, Dr. White reveals why she is respected as a minister. Refreshing"

The Holy Spirit inspired Dr. White to bring a novel that could serve as a blessing to anyone who will read it. Dr. White is the founder and senior pastor of Temple of Christ Refuge Center in Kinston, North Carolina.

She earned her master's in Christian counseling, doctor of theology, doctor of divinity, and various other courses in Christian theology. Her true vocation is evangelism.
